BOERS NOT CHECKED.

Warriors of Transvaal Roving at Will Near Bloemfontein.

BRABANT WITHOUT COMMUNICATION

With Several Thousand Colonials He Is Holding a Fine Defensive Country But He Seems to Be Invaded.

London, April 9.—The amazing activity of the Boers southeast and southwest of Bloemfontein continues, the Boer commands seemingly coming and going throughout a wide region as they please, but taking care not to throw themselves against strong bodies of the British. The retirement of the Irish Rifles from Rouxville to Aliwal leaves General Brabant without communication with the other British forces. He has 2,000 or 3,000 Colonals holding a fine defensive country, but he is apparently invaded so far as London knows. Telegraphic and railroad communication with Bloemfontein are kept up as usual, but nothing comes through for public consumption. Lord Roberts' last message was dated April 6, and the last unofficial message bore date of April 7. The absence of news, as usual, disheartens the people, and produces an altogether discouraging effect. The last unofficial message notes that good spirits at Bloemfontein are continuing, and tells of the arrival of animals and two fresh cavalry regiments. Lord Roberts has now 15,000 mounted men.

In the Orange Free State the situation is complex, with scanty material for forming a correct estimate of the situation, and the afternoon newspapers, not being in the confidence of the managers, are criticizing the conduct of affairs as they see them. Thus, the St. James Gazette, reviewing the army system, says: As a consequence of the foolish, sporting, boyish estimate of the work of the war, General Buller is anchored indefinitely, as he must wait for transports until Lord Roberts is adequately supplied."

Situation at Wepener.

Maseru, April 9.—The Boers who were massed last week near Ladybrand to the number of 10,000, after seizing Thaba N'Chu and the Modder river water works, broke into strong divisions and they are now raiding in the south of the Free State, reoccupying the small towns which were evacuated by the British. The Boers' policy seems to be to make rapid movements with little transport, looting English farmers and storekeepers freely for provisions and cutting the communications of the British forces. General Brabant's Colonals are now mostly at Wepener. They are in splendid force, capable of great striking power, and used to cross country riding, and are able to deal roughly with the Boer commandos now roaming about the country. A squadron of Brabant's Horse captured 400 rifles near Wepener. His outposts are reported to be in touch with the Boers and a fight is regarded as imminent.

Boer Trenches Shelled.

Warrenton, April 9.—Friday evening the British shelled Fourteen Streams, which was occupied by a force of Boers. Saturday morning the Boers placed in position a big gun, which they fired ineffectively. A fusilade of Mausers followed at intervals throughout the day. The British dropped lyddite and shrapnel shells into the Boer position, finally silencing the enemy's fire and driving off the snipers.

Ordered to Kimberley.

Cape Town, April 9.—Lieutenant General Henry Rundell, commander of the Eighth division, has been ordered to Kimberley on special duty.

May Quit Work Again.

Chicago, April 9.—The union machinists of Chicago, who recently went back to work after a strike extending over a period of several weeks, may again walk out unless differences existing between them and their employers are speedily settled. The machinists claim that many of their number have been unable to secure their old positions, which have been filled with nonunion men, and that several firms have flatly refused to recognize the agreement between the officers of the National Metal Manufacturers' association and the International Machinists' union.

Released From Quarantine.

San Francisco, April 9.—The transport Sheridan and the transpacific steamers Belgian King and Doric have been released from quarantine. The transport Lawton, with the Badger, has come down from the Mare Island navy yard to be overhauled at the Union iron works.

A VALID REGULATION.

Decision of United States Supreme Court on Anti-Cigarette Ordinance.

Washington, April 9.—The supreme court decided the case of Gundling versus the city of Chicago, involving the validity of the anti-cigarette ordinance of that city. The ordinance was attacked as unconstitutional. The opinion was handed down by Justice Peckham and held the ordinance not to be unconstitutional.

Interfered With Federal Officer.

Washington, April 9.—The supreme court decided the case of John T. Baske versus Comingsore, as collector of internal revenue in Kentucky. Mr. Comingsore declined under instructions from the secretary of the treasurer to exhibit the records of his office, in support of a prosecution by the state authorities from taxes against persons holding whisky in bond. He was thereupon proceeded against for contempt of state courts and ordered imprisoned. He then made application to the federal district court for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted. The opinion handed down affirmed this decree. The opinion was delivered by Justice Harlan, who said that ordinarily the United States courts can not interfere with the state courts in a case until the proceeding is concluded. But this case presented, he said an emergency, inasmuch as it might interfere with a federal officer in the discharge of his duties.

Against the L. & N.

Washington, April 9.—Justice White of the supreme court handed down an opinion in the long pending case of the Louisville and Nashville railroad company versus Smith. The case involves the liability of the Louisville and Nashville company for the interest on the bonds of the Cumberland and Ohio River company, which came into the possession of the Louisville and Nashville, through the acquisition by the latter company of the Cincinnati and Lexington road. The case was decided against the Louisville and Nashville, the court declaring that there was no violation of the constitution in holding the company responsible, on the ground that the Louisville and Nashville had voluntarily made itself a party to the case, and holding it responsible on the original proceeding, which was against the Cincinnati and Lexington company.

Court of Pension Claims.

Washington, April 9.—The committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, consisting of Commander-in-Chief Shaw and Daniel E. Siekles, which is endeavoring to secure legislation looking to the creation of a court of pension appeals, has submitted the proposed measure to some of the most eminent jurists of the country, and it has been endorsed by them. The committee has also conferred with the president on the subject. "The legal authorities and others who have examined the bill," said General Shaw, "are of the opinion that the measure, if it becomes a law, will justify itself by securing disinterested and prompt adjudication of pension claims."

Shattuck Roasts Atkinson.

Washington, April 9.—Mr. Shattuck (O.), in the course of a 45-minute speech in the house in denunciation of "the unpatriotic course of the anti-imperialists," paid his respects to Edward Atkinson of Boston, whom he described as the "former superintendent of a Massachusetts cotton mill, and celebrated as the notorious author of the science of nutrition and the inventor of the Aladdin oven." Mr. Shattuck undertook to give a brief account of the history and career of the Atkinsons, the recital of which created some amusement."

Hague Convention Ratified.

Washington, April 9.—The president has ratified The Hague convention for universal arbitration of international disputes, and for the regulation of the use of warlike instruments. The ratification will immediately be notified to The Hague through United States Minister Newell.

McKinley County Barred Out.

Washington, April 9.—The house committee on territories reported a bill disapproving the action of New Mexico in creating "McKinley county," on the ground that the locality lacked the population and business to warrant county organization.

Against Contract Indian Schools.

Washington, April 9.—The amendment for contract Indian schools was defeated in the senate, 16 to 30.

No Time Fixed on Quay Case.

Washington, April 9.—An ineffectual attempt was made to fix a time for a vote on the Quay case.

Clinton Stevens, 24, who shot himself at Columbus, O., died.

Two masked robbers murdered Clarence Warrick, a boy, near Barnesville, O.

AS GUEST OF CHICAGO

Admiral Dewey Gives His Answer to the Reception Committee.

NO MENTION MADE OF POLITICS.

In Reference to the Story About Mrs. Dewey Leaving the Catholic Church, the Naval Hero Declines to Talk.

Washington, April 9.—The Chicago reception committee, consisting of W. B. Conkey and J. M. Glenn, had a final interview with Admiral Dewey.

No mention was made of politics, the admiral's only allusion to the matter being that since he had accepted the invitation to visit Chicago last October, conditions had so changed that he was accepting no further invitations. He assured the committee that he was glad to accept the hospitality of the city of Chicago. He told the committee he had received invitations from various organizations there to become their guest, but had not accepted them. He had placed himself solely in the hands of the city of Chicago.

He requested that there be no separate entertainments for himself and Mrs. Dewey. He wished matters to be so arranged that she could attend all the functions at which he would be present. The admiral, who received the committee in a most cordial manner, was assured that his wishes in this respect would be carried out, and also was informed that arrangements had been made to have his son, who is now a resident of Chicago, participate in the various entertainments.

The admiral's party, consisting of himself and Mrs. Dewey, Lieutenant Caldwell, Mr. Madden of the Baltimore of the Baltimore and Ohio, a Chinese servant and Mrs. Dewey's maid, will leave this city in a special train over the Baltimore and Ohio on April 29, in time to reach Chicago and rest before the ball at the Auditorium on the night of the 30th, the eve of the second anniversary of Manila bay.

No stops will be made between Washington and Chicago, as the admiral does not wish the trip to have the appearance of a stamping tour.

After leaving Chicago, however, the party will take a 12-day tour through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys. So far as outlined, this will include a stop of one day at Jacksonville, Ills; two days in St. Louis, two days in Memphis, two in Louisville, two in Nashville and one in Frankfort.

Admiral Dewey was asked about the story in circulation that Mrs. Dewey had left the Catholic church and was to become a communicant of St. John's Episcopal church here. He replied that it was a matter he did not wish to discuss; that he did not see that it was a question of national interest whether Mrs. Dewey was a Catholic, a Methodist or an Episcopalian. It was a matter entirely personal to Mrs. Dewey, and he added, "Mrs. Dewey is not being interviewed now on any subject." No date has been fixed for the publication of Admiral Dewey's proposed personal statement.

Filipinos Hanged.

Manilla, April 9.—An interesting topic of conversation in army circles is the investigation General Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos, and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom. The story is that the Filipinos captured three Macabebes scouts, who were crossing the country near San Isidro, and were preparing to kill them, when one of the Macabebes escaped and found General Funston with a scouting party near. This man guided the Americans to the rescue of his companions, and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Macabebes. Several of the Filipinos were shot, and General Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hanged them without trial, as a warning to the Filipinos.

Two Judges on Deck.

Bardoville, Ky., April 9.—Circuit court began here, but it is doubtful who will act as judge, John Henry Wilson or Judge Brown. When time for the opening of court came Judge Brown took his seat, and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the election commissioners and signed by Beckham. Brown refused to evacuate. There are several murder cases set for this term of court, among them being that of Dee and Wiley Baker, the Clay county feudists, and George Cole for the murder of Town Marshal Tom Roach on Dec. 31, 1898.

Miners Kicked.

Springfield, Ills., April 9.—The miners in the Fairmont and Catlin mines in Vermillion county have struck because the operators ordered them to clear up the falls of rock which occur from time to time. The miners claim this is not customary, and that it takes up time when they might be earning money.

ARE A WORK.

Building Trades and Contractors at Indianapolis Adjust Differences.

Indianapolis, April 9.—The men employed in the building trades in Indianapolis were at work. The union carpenters and the contractors came to an agreement Saturday night. The men are to receive 30 cents an hour for eight hours' work, one and one-half pay for overtime, and double pay for work done on holidays. It is agreed further that the employees shall not be compelled to work on Sundays or on Labor day unless it is absolutely necessary.

Excursionists Mobbed.

Dublin, April 9.—On the arrival at Tipperary of a train of excursionists from Dublin, a large crowd, which had gathered at the railway hotel, hooted the excursionists, many of the girls being roughly handled and pelted with mud. Some had their clothes torn and others were even struck. Almost at the same time a rick of hay, the property of a firm who had given their employees a holiday to go to Dublin, was set on fire, and the rioters prevented any attempt to extinguish the flames.

Trial of a Destroyer.

Norfolk, April 9.—All preparations are now complete for the trial over the measured course in lower Chesapeake bay of the torpedo boat destroyer Stringham. She has been tied up in this port for the past 48 hours, while the skilled mechanics who constructed her have been at work on her, making every bearing, nut, bolt and screw of her machinery perfect in its working parts. The official trial board, headed by Rear Admiral Rodgers, has arrived.

Army Officer's Death.

Chicago, April 9.—Captain Louis Ostheim, First United States artillery, who was to have been married to Mrs. Eva Bruce Wood at the home of her uncle, Walter B. Phister, in this city, was found dead in bed at the Auditorium annex. There was a bullet wound in his right temple. The finding of a revolver in the bed, the nature of the wound and the position of the body all indicated that he had committed suicide. Later—The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental wound.

Blew Out His Brains.

Oakland, Cal., April 9.—Barker H. H. Pitcher, who has charge of the Livermore bank in the capacity of manager and cashier, blew his brains out at his Livermore home. Pitcher was a trustee of the senate of the late Thomas Varney, deceased, valued at $600,000. His trusteeship was being investigated in court. Pitcher was to produce his books in court and testify as to how he handled the bank and the trust. Rather than appear in court he blew his brains out.

New Convention Hall.

Pittsburgh, April 9.—The Carnegie company, who received from the Gillette-Herzog Manufacturing company of Minneapolis the contract for structural iron to be used in the construction of the convention building at Kansas City, have commenced the shipment of the material. Several cars are loaded and will be started west during the day. As far as the Carnegie company is concerned the building can be completed on time.

Discharged From Bankruptcy.

Chicago, April 9.—Among the discharges in bankruptcy in the United States district court was one received by Charles B. Browne, whose liabilities were $1,638,078, with no assets. Richard H. Southgate, manager of the Auditorium annex, was also freed of debts aggregating $434,938, mostly incurred as a stockholder of the Hotel Brunswick, New York. He scheduled $306,775 in assets.

Cars Are Running.

Chicago, April 9.—The streetcar system of the south side, which was badly demoralized by a strike of power house men is being operated without trouble, both cable systems on State and Wabash avenues and the cross town electric lines running the usual number of trains and on schedule time. New men have been procured to fill the places of the strikers, and most of the latter who applied for their old positions were refused. The new rules requiring the men to work 12 hours have been posted in the power houses, which are under police protection, and no further trouble is looked for.

FIFTY HAVE PERISHED

Startling Sacrifice of Human Lives During Texas Floods.

COLORADO RIVER ON THE RAMPAGE

Some Places Are Cut Off From Communication and Reports Show the Property Damage Is Enormous.

Dallas, April 9.—Reports received at Dallas up to noon from the southern and southwestern Texas flood sections show conclusively that more than 50 lives have been lost, including those at Austin. The names of at least one-half of the victims are not obtainable because of the isolation of the localities from railroad and wire lines.

Most of them are in the Colorado valley, south of Austin and Bastrop. Lagrange at noon says the river is still rising and menacing more country districts. The stream is now four feet higher than during the great flood of last year.

Bastrop is entirely surrounded by water and cut off. The property damage is enormous. The wires in the southern section are in a worse condition than heretofore. All the wires along the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, south of Temple, were lost. Railroad traffic of the southern half of the state is practically abandoned, and all outlets to California are gone because of the big washouts on the western division of the Texas and Pacific.

Club Property Damaged.

Dallas, April 9.—E. H. R. Green, son of Hetty Green and president of the Tarpon club of the gulf coast, has received telegrams from Rockport of heavy damage to club property on St. Joseph island by a severe storm in Matagorda Bay along Matagorda peninsula and Matagorda Island. A number of small vessels were wrecked and some lives are believed to have been lost. None of the Tarpon club members are down on the coast. This storm is in the same locality where Mr. Green and a party had such an exciting and dangerous experience last fall. Trinity river at Dallas continues to rise. The stream is nearly a mile wide here. Much property has been lost in the valley. No lives reported lost.

Flood Force of Floods.

Austin, April 9.—Reports from Bastrop, Fayette and Wharton counties, on the Colorado river below here, are to the effect that the full force of the flood is just being felt there. The waters are rising so rapidly that the people are compelled to desert their homes with all possible speed to protect their lives. Even this has not saved some, as reports come from Bastrop that 12 people were drowned there during the night. In Wharton and Fayette counties the situation is even more grave, and it is expected that the report from this section will not only pile up an immense property loss, but the list of human lives lost will be considerable.

Flood Bulletins.

Dallas, April 9.—The following flood bulletins have been received: Waco—Water receding slowly in the Brazos, but the weather is very threatening. Columbus—The flood in the Colorado river reached here during the night, causing a 25-foot rise and is still going up, and the lowlands are all flooded and the property damage is serious. No loss of life here.

Cars Are Running.

Chicago, April 9.—The streetcar system of the south side, which was badly demoralized by a strike of power house men is being operated without trouble, both cable systems on State and Wabash avenues and the cross town electric lines running the usual number of trains and on schedule time. New men have been procured to fill the places of the strikers, and most of the latter who applied for their old positions were refused. The new rules requiring the men to work 12 hours have been posted in the power houses, which are under police protection, and no further trouble is looked for.

Apartment House Burned.

New York, April 9.—A fire, for which four alarms have been sent in, broke out in the 6-story apartment house, the Washington and Jefferson, at One Hundred and Fourth and One Hundred and Sixth streets. Owing to a fire at One Hundred and Eighth street the department was badly crippled. All the people in the apartment houses, mostly women and children, escaped. The fire was subdued.

Chicago, April 9.—Mrs. Gate G. Huddstone, one of the most active and widely known club women in the country, died at her home here, aged 57.

The following is the report of commerce on the Kanawha river for the month of March, as reported from Lock No. 11, the month: Coal, 3,285,000 bush.; saw logs, 1,681,000 feet; railroad ties, 76,500; staves, 15,000; hoop poles, 105,000; lathes, 460,500; brick, 5,500; salt, 560 bush.; number of steamboats passing, 205; number of loaded barges, 252; number of empty barges, 238; other craft, 14; passengers, 1,205; tons of miscellaneous freight, 2,074. The locks and dams were not used during the entire month, the stage of the river being sufficient for use by boats all the time. The traffic for March was very heavy. As compared with the same month last year the increase in the shipments is more than double.

WILL SUPPORT BRYAN.

The Courier-Journal Will Stand by the Great Common People in the Coming Presidential Contest.

[Courier-Journal.] Mr. Bryan will be nominated by acclamation. The Kansas City convention will be merely a ratification meeting. And if he can hold the vote he got in 1896 he will be elected, for at least a million of Gold Democrats who voted against him in 1896, the money difference out of the way, will vote for in 1900. The radical features of 1896 will be eliminated in 1900. That which becomes familiar ceases to be revolutionary. The friction among Democrats is already reduced to the normal point of ordinary agreements and disagreements. On the new issues which have come upon the scene, the party when it crystallizes its terms, will be fairly united. It will go to the polls a tolerably compact body behind Mr. Bryan.

In an interview Sunday, Mr. W. N. Haldeman was asked what he thought of the Dewey announcement and whether in his opinion the hero of Manila would gain any organized following in Kentucky or elsewhere. "In my opinion," said he, "the Dewey candidacy is an over-night affair, and I do not believe that this late day the Admiral, conspicuous though his naval achievements be, will be able to figure prominently in the race for the Presidency. I feel quite sure that the Democrats will not take him up. Mr. Bryan is as good as nominated. The party is solidly for him in my belief, and I look forward with pleasure to supporting him this fall. Mr. Bryan is more than an able politician. He is an honest politician. His hold upon the Democracy is secure, and I do not see how Admiral Dewey or any other man can hope to compete with him for the Democratic nomination. I expect to do all in my power for Mr. Bryan's election."

OUTSIDE VIEWS.

What Some Papers Have to Say About the Court of Appeals' Decision in the Beckham-Taylor Case.

[Detroit Tribune, Rep.] Now that the Kentucky Court of Appeals has by its decision given the Governorship of the State to the Democrats, Mr. Taylor had better step down and out as gracefully and as quietly as he can and retire to private life. The law is against him. It is true that it nullifies the will of the people as expressed at the polls, but it is the law of the State nevertheless, and as such must be recognized until it can be repealed. The showing made by Mr. Taylor during his brief incumbency, legally and otherwise, is such that it is an open question if the result was not a good one for the State.

[Indianapolis News, Ind.]

It seems to us that the decision is right. * * * Taylor, however, announces his intention to carry the question to the Supreme Court of the United States. This is his right undoubtedly. Yet it seems as though it would be better for him to yield, now that he finds his claim disallowed by the highest legislative and judicial authority of the State.

[Pittsburg Times Rep.]

The real surprise is that two of the Republican Judges should have concurred in the opinion and only one of them dissented.

[Nashville Banner, Ind.]

The decision of the court at Frankfort that Gov. Taylor transcended his authority in adjourning the Legislature to London is doubtless correct and just.

[Philadelphia Times, Dem.]

The decision of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky in favor of the Democratic claimant to the office of Governor ought to end the dispute that has so long disturbed and disgraced the State.

[Baltimore Herald, Rep.]

Gov. Taylor may take the case to the United States Supreme Court, but the country wishes he won't. The public has had enough of the "Kentucky case."

[St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Dem.]

The Republican Judges of the Kentucky Court of Appeals who concurred in the decision favorable to the Democrats in the governorship case, can not be accused of partisanship.

[Pittsburg Post, Dem.]

In the earlier stage of the legal contest the Republicans sought the intervention of the Federal courts through Judge Taft, of the Circuit Court, at Cincinnati. His decision was clear and positive that the question was one for the State courts, and the Federal courts had no right to intervene.

UNJUST WAR TAXES

Should Be Repealed and the People Relieved of the Burden.

[New York World.]

President McKinley could not do a more just and popular act than earnestly to recommend to Congress the repeal of at least $50,000,000 of the taxes imposed two years ago.

The emergency which called for them ended in less than six months. The fact that the Treasury is accumulating a surplus, which will surely be a temptation to extravagance if not stopped, is a sufficient reason for giving the people relief from unnecessary taxation, which is always unjust taxation.

A further reason for repealing some of these taxes is found in their discriminating and exasperating nature. Last year the Government collected $43,837,000 from internal revenue stamps. A considerable proportion of this amount was realized from stamps on telegrams and express packages, which it is fair to assume Congress meant should be paid by the rich corporations, but which a convenient "interpretation" of the law shifted to the individuals making use of these conveniences. Nearly all the rest of the $100,000,000 and more of special war taxes is collected from the consumption of the people, in one form or another. They manage these things better in England. When the Government there decided to raise $62,500,000 additional revenue for the South African war they provided for getting more than half of it by adding fourpence (eight cents) additional to the income tax, making this tax upon the rich one shilling (25 cents) in the pound sterling (about $5.)

Congress should not adjourn without repealing the vexatious, superfluous, and therefore unjust war taxes.

TOOK HIS LIFE

On the Eve of His Marriage to a Former Resident of This City—Suicide of Captain Ostheim.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Capt. Louis Ostheim, First U. S. Artillery, was found dead in his room at the Auditorium Annex late last night. There was a bullet wound in his right temple. The body lay on the side. Life apparently had been extinct since Saturday night. According to announcements in the Chicago papers Capt. Louis Ostheim and Mrs. Eva Bruce Wood were to be married in this city to-day at the residence of the bride's uncle, Walter B. Phister. After the ceremony Captain Ostheim and his bride were to leave immediately for the East, visiting Philadelphia, the Captain's former home, and other cities. After May 1 they were to be at home at Fort Screven, Savannah, Ga., where the Captain's battery is stationed. Among the articles found in the Captain's room were two wedding rings. One was heavy gold and was inscribed as follows: "Eva to Louis, April 9, 1900." The other was smaller and more delicately made. Inside was engraved: "Louis to Eva, April 9, 1900." Captain Ostheim was stationed at Fort Sheridan previous to the Spanish-American war, and it was during his stay here that he met Mrs. Wood. He had been transferred from service with the Sixth Artillery in Manila to the First in the United States and had come to Chicago to be married when he committed suicide.

The cause of the suicide is a mystery. Nothing was left in the room to throw any light on the matter. The only writing found was the following address on an empty envelope: "Miss Clara Ostheim, 1312 North Seventh street, Philadelphia, Pa." In the pockets of the Captain's clothing were found eight $50 bills, five $20 bills and a check for $210. Capt. Ostheim registered at the Auditorium Annex on Monday, April 2, one week ago to-day. He seemed to be in excellent health, showing the tan of his Philippine campaigning in his face and was reserved in his manner. The Captain was last seen alive on Saturday night at 9 o'clock, when he asked the clerk for the key of his room. When a chambermaid went to his room Sunday morning she found the door locked. This was not unusual, and the girl went about her work in other rooms. Returning to Capt. Ostheim's apartments she found the door still locked. Then she reported the circumstances to the office. The clerks concluded that the Captain was tired and desired a long sleep and made no effort to open the door till last night.

Captain Ostheim was lying on the bed dead. As stated there was a bullet hole in his right temple and under his body was a new revolver. Capt. Ostheim's military history throughout is a record of transfers to more important posts and of promotions in rank. Mr. Phister was notified of the death. "I am sure the Captain's death was caused by an accident," said Mr. Phister. "He was perfectly happy and had made minute arrangements for his wedding to-morrow. He had even bought tickets for his bride and himself to Cincinnati, which was to be the first stage in their wedding journey. He had given one ticket to Mrs. Wood so that she might get her trunk checked. The only trouble the Captain had to worry him was insomnia."

A late dispatch from Chicago states that the Coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental shooting. Witnesses testified that the Captain had been ill for the past six weeks, and had not been able to go to sleep before morning. He was subject to nightmare, and is supposed to have shot himself during one of his wild dreams.

The Euchre Club will not meet Thursday afternoon with Misses Rosa and Belle Watson on account of the illness of their mother.

MRS. ELIZABETH B. WALL.

Pacefully the Beloved Wife of Judge Garrett S. Wall Fell Asleep in Death Monday at 11 O'clock.

A Full Confession!

Mrs. Elizabeth (Buckner) Wall, wife of Judge Garrett S. Wall, died Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the family residence on West Front street, of a disease of the heart. She had been ill about two months and for some time her condition had been very critical. Peacefully, as a child sinking into a gentle slumber, surrounded by her loved ones, she fell asleep in death.

Mrs. Wall was a daughter of Henry M. and Ethelene (Conan) Buckner and was born fifty years ago at "Edgewood," the old homestead in Kenton County. She leaves two brothers, Col. John A. Buckner, of Louisiana, and Dr. James H. Buckner, of Cincinnati, and one sister, Mrs. Stephen Henry, of Erlanger, Ky. Her husband survives, with one daughter, Miss Ethelene, of this city, and two sons, Garrett B. and Buckner Wall of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Wall was a noble Christian woman, having been a devoted member of the Episcopal Church for years. Her friends learn with sincere sorrow of her death and deeply sympathize with the family in this dark hour.

The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, Rev. D. D. Chapin officiating. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ELDER E. L. POWELL.

Former Maysville Minister's Eloquent Address at the Newsboys' Home Benefit in Louisville Sunday.

The lecture by the noted actor, Mr. Joseph Jefferson, at Macauley's Theatre, Louisville, Sunday afternoon, realized the sum of $1,100 for the Newsboys' Home of that city.

The opening remarks were made by Elder E. L. Powell, formerly minister of the Maysville Christian Church, who defended the giving of the lecture against those who had taken exceptions to it because it fell on Sunday. He spoke beautifully and eloquently and was, a number of times, applauded warmly for the broad, Christian view he took of the occasion. He said:

A good cause, good company, a good day—and having withal the presence of genius wearing the simple garment of loving service—surely we should be satisfied and happy. The cause appeals to every man who has a heart; the lecturer is loved for his character and admired for his art, which in his hands has never brought the blush of shame to the brow of innocence or kindled the lurid glow of passion in any human soul; the day is holy unto him only who brings to it the loving heart and the helping hand.

"If we sit down at the set of sun,
And count the things that we have done,
And counting find
One self-denying act, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard,

One glance most kind
That felt like sunshine where it went,
Then we may count that day well spent."

Are not these lines as true of Sunday as of Monday? The intellectual acceptance of the fact of the resurrection of Jesus on this day does not make it holy. It is the influence of this fact on our lives that determines the character of the day. If the empty tomb shall awaken within us love, gratitude, hope, and under such inspiration bid us to say to buried souls—buried beneath the burdens and sorrows of this world—for you there is resurrection and a new life; here is our balm and heart in helping you to realize it—then Sunday for us is baptized with the sacredness of heaven; otherwise there is no fire on the altar and there is no worshiper in the temple. After all, in its last analysis, it is our thoughts and deeds which make any day holy or secular, bright with God's glory or black with the void from which He has disappeared. The lines of Shelley are as true of days and seasons as of the world of nature, concerning which he sings:

"I may not hope from outward forms to win
The passion and the life, whose fountain is within.

O Lady! we receive but what we give,
And in our life above does nature live;

Ours is her wedding garment, ours her shroud."

It seems to me that we are clothing this day with the wedding garment of beauty in the thought and interest we are seeking to express toward those who most surely need our practical sympathy and affection. Is not this a "divine service" to which Mr. Jefferson is contributing, and in which all of us are sharing? Shall we denominate certain religious functions "divine service" and consign the ministry of active love in its thousand forms to the realm of the secular? Is it religious to read in the church "suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not," and secular in another building to reach out a helping hand to make that invitation good? Not so have I studied the Christianity of that Christ who says: "Whoso receiveth one such little one in my name receiveth me"—anywhere, everywhere; any day, every day.

We are honoring to-day, besides, the memory of a good man—the founder of the Newsboys' Home. It is his monument—better and more glorious far than any marble shaft which love might rear above his grave. If he is with us in spirit to-day, I know that we have his benediction. But these "opening remarks" must no longer delay the appearance of those whom you are eager to hear. That a great actor should turn aside for a moment to honor the needy child is to consecrate his genius to a holy cause. "Literature to-day?" It has been said, "is working for the once despised and unfriended classes," and "books that have no enthusiasm for humanity are speedily sent to the garret." Likewise, the noblest use to which the highest gifts can be dedicated is that of service to the least and poorest child whom God has sent into this world of mystery and glory. No man is so great that he can be made greater by simple kindness to the most unnoticed wretch of the street and gutter. The distinguished lecturer, who has already made the world so much happier because he has lived in it, is weeping to-day in his garland of fame the fairest and sweetest flower of all—that of service to the child in our midst. Loving the world, loving little children—for him there is stealing on apace—

"An old age serene and bright,
And calm as is a Lapland night!"

Americans are known as a dyspeptic people. The extent of this disease may be inferred from the multitude of so-called "medicines" offered as a remedy. They are often in tablet form and have no value except as palliatives of the immediate effects of dyspepsia. The man who used them may feel better but is surely getting worse. They do not touch the real cause of the disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine specially prepared to cure diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not made to give temporary relief but to effect permanent cure. In ninety-eight cases out of every hundred it cures perfectly and permanently.

It has cost Dr. Pierce $25,000 to give away in the last year the copies of his People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, which have been applied for.

This book of 100 pages is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TRANS CHANGED.

Tacoma, April 9.—President Hill of the Great Northern announces that his plans for a new line of American trans-Pacific steamers have been changed. Some time ago he had plans prepared for several 10,000-ton vessels. Further investigation has convinced him that the future carrying trade across the Pacific must be done at a small margin of profit, and to procure this immense cargo carriers will be necessary. He has accordingly ordered two ships of 20,000 tons capacity each, and intends ordering more.

that it would take 1,000 men to arrest

Jim Howard of Clay county, who is said to have fired the shot that killed

Governor Goebel, was denied by Dr.

H. B. Phillips, a prominent citizen of Clay county. Dr. Phillips arrived here

—Miss Rosa Williams, of Lebanon, Ind., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Muee.

—Rev. Dr. Molloy and Mr. J. M. Scott go to Criterenden to-day to attend the Southern Presbytery of Ebenezer.

—Miss Florence Rogers took part in a recital given by the College of Music at the Lyceum, Cincinnati, last Saturday.

—Mr. Dave Ree, brother of Mrs. P. A. Williams, and Mr. Lindsey Howard, of Cynthiana, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of West Fourth street.

—Rev. Dr. Barbour and Mr. R. K. Hoeflich will represent the First Presbyterian Church at the meeting of Ebenezer Presbytery in Newport this week.

—Mrs. Charles Phister is visiting her son, Mr. Walter B. Phister, of Chicago. She went there Saturday to attend the marriage of her granddaughter Mrs. Eva Bruce Wood, to Captain Louis Osthain whose sad death is mentioned elsewhere in this issue. The nuptials were to take place Monday at noon, but Sunday evening Capt. Osthain was found dead in his room at the hotel, having accidentally shot himself.

For the Farmer.

The revival in the horse market for roadsters, coachers, saddlebreds and trotters should lead every stallion owner to invest liberally in printer's ink this year.

The activity in the horse and mule market has advanced the price and almost cleaned up the surplus stock. This has revived the breeding industry everywhere.

Hon. John D. Harris, of Madison County, who has 500 acres in wheat, is of the opinion that the crop will be considerably above the average this year.

Drilled corn will, if kept clean, yield about eight bushels more to the acre than corn planted on the same land in hills. The drilled corn is harder to keep clean and, as a matter of fact, if not properly cultivated when very small never can be kept clean. The drilled corn grows in better shape for the harvester to cut and, aside from the increased yield, will furnish ears of a more uniform size.

You can not tell good seed corn by looking at it or weighing it, says an authority. But if you take a dinner plate and fill it with good earth, plant your seed in it, cover well and set away in a warm place. All seed that germinates within thirty-six hours are good seed, and if there is uniform germination, then it is safe to plant the corn from which that was selected. Corn germinating after forty-eight hours is not good.
